A stranger was left waiting in Mr. Betz's Humber office yesterday while young Frank Betz went out to the lumber yard. In the meanwhile Mr. Betz came in and it was dis-covered that the safe had been robbed of $19. The stranger was arrested and taken before Squire Harris, but only $9 could be found on his person, and he was honorably acquitted. It was subsequently learned that he had passed the money out the window to a pal, and the officers again sought for him, but he had shaken the dust of Newport from his feet.

LEXINGTON, KY. The Ashland House will be sold at auction next Saturday morning.

An immense live stock sale is advertised to take place October 7th at Ashland Trot-

Yesterday was a big day for the colored folks. The fair and the drill and parade of the Knights Templar brought a large crowd of them to the city.

A little son of John Faig, residing on Short street, died Tuesday morning from injuries received by falling head foremost into a pan of hot water.

Levi Richardson, one of the trio who. during the spring races, made raids on our business men by demanding money, grocer-ies, &c., was arrested Monday by Constable Himick, of Woodford County, and is now here awaiting trial.

Several commanderies of the Colored Knights Templar engaged in the contest for the best drill at the colored fair Tuesday. Two prizes, one of $75 and one of $25, were offered. The first prize was won by Zerubbabel Commandery, of Cincinnati.

The local papers have been loud in de-nouncing the filthy condition of the Town Fork of Elkhorn. Old residenters say the little creek is not the cause of sickness, as there is none in the city. When the cholthere is none in the city. When the cholera raged here in 1849 and 1866 not a single case occurred along or in the vicinity of the creek. So, gentlemen, let up on the Town Fork, and turn your guns on the old Work-house and the three old schoolhouses.

BELLEVUE, KY.

The citizens of Bellevue will offer every encouragement to buses between here and Newport if the enterprise is started.

give a social this evening. Mr. J. F. McGrew, of this city, is spending a few days in Stuebenville. Mr. J. W. Taylor and family, of Cleveland, are the guests of Mr. Deane.

A break-down occurred on High street yesterday afternoon. Nobody hurt.

To the Editor of the Star: The undersigned, who suffered a broken hand in Dayton, Ky., last Sunday, returns thanks to Dr. Schoolfield for kind and efficent treatment received at his hands. Reports to the contrary are malicious and un-V. J. FAGIN. To the Editor of the Star:

Why is it that our City Council have re-fused to grant Mr. Creimer, who resides in Lower Dayton, a license to sell liquor, and then turn around and grant to Mr. Walters, of Upper Dayton, the right to sell liquor in our part of town? Is there any right or jus-tice in the above proceeding?

A RESIDENT OF LOWER DAYTON. Why won't or why don't the managers of the Dummy Line make some arrangements with the Newport Bridge Line for the ac-commodation of Dayton and Bellevue people? Under the present state of affairs it costs 13 cents to go from Dayton to Walnut street, Cincinnati, by that route. It was supposed that coupon tickets would be for that would reduce the fare to at least 10 cents for single and about 8 cents for package tickets. Something must be done by the dummy folks soon, or arrangements will certainly be made to cross on the skiffferry and take the Pendleton cars, or to encourage the contemplated 'bus line.

MEETING OF THE SCHOOL BOARD,-The at the Lower School-house, last night; all the numbers present except Mr. Wagner. The Finance Committee presented the report of the Treasurer and stated that the note in the First National Bank of Newport had been taken up at the proper time, as ordered by the Board. On motion the signatures to the note were cancelled by President and the same ordered filed. The Superintendent's report for Septemthe Superintendent's report for september was received and spread on the minutes.

The Visiting Committee reported the schools very much crowded, and the children made uncomfortable and the teachers inconvenienced by the want of desks.

The contract for coal was awarded to Messrs. Trapp & Heeg, the lowest bidders.

The Committee on Supplies was authorized to purchase thirty new desks.

On motion the Superintendent was authorized to give the scholars a holiday, for the purpose of visiting the Zoological Gar-den, accompanied by their teachers. The Clerk was instructed to correspond Old Sammie Carter, of Williamstown, O., with the City Council, and inform them of father of Captain Lawrence Carter, and one of the oldest settlers of Campbell ask the Council to furnish the money to pay the teachers' salaries for this month.

The Cerk was instructed to the formation of the schools, and nuisance, dismissed; Jas. Manes, embezzlement, examination waived; Hattie Miller, grand larceny, held to answer; Lizzie Terclake Shore.

Death Record.

The following deaths have been placed on the Fig. 1 and 1 and Barnum's Fat Woman. No circus is now considered complete unless it has an enormously fat woman in a side tent. As Barnum has the "greatest show on earth," he of n has the "greatest show on earth," he of has the fattest woman. Yet of the thoucourse has the fattest woman. Yet of the thou-sands of curious people who annually visit this monstrosity, few ever reflect that her obesity is a disease. Until very recently there was no known remedy for this abnormal condition. Allan's Anti-Fat has proved more efficacious than even the most sanguine hopes of its discoverer had an-ticipated. By its use even Barnum's fat woman could be reduced to graceful and even delicate proportions. Sold by druggists.
